Glasgow Fire Chief, Tony Atwood presented the department’s annual report. The Chief started out by thanking the Mayor and Council for their continued support to the Glasgow Fire Department. He then gave a brief summary of the fire runs the department had made in 2012. He listed all the programs the department is currently working on and what they firefighters do on a day to day basis. He stated 2013 was going to be a very busy year. He said his employees are all willing to go that extra step to help the department. The Chief thanked each firefighter and Polly for all they do. Finally the Chief announced the upcoming retirement of Assistant Chief Tracy Shirley as of March 1st and said there will be a reception in his honor on February 28th.

Chief Guy Trucotte, presented each Council Member with a packet of information they give out to the community to educate our citizens on drug abuse, what to do in case of a disaster, how to keep your home safe and coloring books on children’s safety. The Chief gave an updated report on the number of different calls the Police Department has responded to over the past year. In 2012, officers answered 19,706 calls. He said the department had received five grants which was very good for the department. The Chief said they are looking forward to the upcoming year and invited the Council Members to come by the department for a ride-a-long or tour of the department. He thanked Kurt, Eddie and Chief Atwood for working so closely with the Police Department.
