

Proclamation
Honoring
Roger Clinton
For His Service to the City of Glasgow
And the Glasgow Airport Board

To All To Whom These Presents Shall Come:

Whereas: Roger Clinton is being honored by the grateful citizens of Glasgow, Kentucky on the occasion of his retirement from the Glasgow Airport Board; and

Whereas: He was born in Wisconsin and has been a resident of our community since 1988; and

Whereas: He became the husband of Kaye of Greenville, Kentucky in 1952 and the marriage was blessed with two children, two grandchildren and one great-grandchild; and

Whereas: In addition to husband and father, he served in the United States Air Force as an Air Traffic Controller in Korea and mainland America. After service in the Air Force, Roger served as Air Traffic Controller for the FAA at O'Hare International Airport and Tower Chief at Willard Airport in Champaign-Urbana, Illinois. Upon retirement from the FAA he received a Proclamation from President Reagan; and

Whereas: During his long and productive life, he has demonstrated in countless ways his dedication to the welfare of others during his Air Force years, serving others as a FAA controller, supervising others as tower chief and a faithful member of his beloved Glasgow First United Methodist Church; and

Whereas: He has lived during the most eventful century of this worlds history and in his quiet way has been a force for good and a stabilizing influence on those around him during those years; and

Now, Therefore: I, Dick Doty, Mayor of the City of Glasgow and the Glasgow City Council: Jake Dickinson, Patrick Gaunce, Brad Groce, Stacy Norman Hammer, Greg Harris, Wendell Honeycutt, Marna Kirkpatrick, Chasity Lowery, James "Happy" Neal, Freddie Norris, Gary Oliver, Marlin Witcher; do hereby deem it an honor and pleasure to extend this proclamation to Roger Clinton on the occasion of his retirement and fourteen years of volunteer service from the Glasgow Airport Board as member and chairman with sincere congratulations and best wishes for many more productive years; and

In Witness Wherefore: I do hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the City of Glasgow to be affixed, this 23rd day of July 2018.

Dick Doty, Mayor
City of Glasgow, Kentucky
